Parcels-Post Convention between the United States of America and the German Empire.

August 26, 1899.
Preamble.

For the purpose of making better postal arrangements between the United States of America and the German Empire, the undersigned, Charles Emory Smith, Postmaster-General of the United States of America, and Privy Counselor of Legation Dr. jur. Mumm von Schwarzenstein, Imperial German Minister in extraordinary mission at Washington, by virtue of authority vested in them, have agreed upon the following articles for the establishment of a Parcels-Post System of exchanges between the two countries.

ARTICLE I.

Extent of convention.

The provisions of this Convention relate only to parcels of mail matter to be exchanged by the system herein provided for, and do not affect the arrangements now existing under the Universal Postal Convention, which will continue as heretofore; and all the agreements hereinafter contained apply exclusively to mails exchanged under these articles, directly between the office of New York, and such other offices within the United States as may be hereafter designated by the Postmaster-General of the United States, and the offices of Hamburg and Bremen, and such other offices within the German Empire as may be hereafter designated by the Secretary of State of the Imperial German Posts; such matter to be admitted to the mails under these articles as shall be sent through such exchange offices from any place in either country to any place in the other.

Behufs Herstellung besserer Postverbindungen zwischen dem Deutschen Reiche und den Vereinigten Staaten von Amerika haben die unterzeichneten Bevollmächtigten, Geheimer Legationsrath Dr. jur. Mumm von Schwarzenstein, Kaiserlich Deutscher Gesandter in ausserordentlicher Mission in Washington, und Charles Emory Smith, General-Postmeister der Vereinigten Staaten von Amerika, das folgende Abkommen betreffend den Austausch von Postpaketen zwischen den beiden Ländern abgeschlossen.

ARTIKEL I.

Die Bestimmungen dieses Abkommens betreffen ausschliesslich den Austausch von Postpaketen nach dem hier vorgeschriebenen System und berühren in keiner Weise die Bestimmungen des Weltpost-Vertrages, welche wie bisher in Kraft bleiben; alle in diesem Abkommen enthaltenen Vereinbarungen beziehen sich ausschliesslich auf den unmittelbaren Austausch von Kartenschlüssen, gemäss den Bestimmungen dieses Abkommens zwischen den Postämtern in Hamburg und Bremen sowie denjenigen Postämtern im Deutschen Reiche, die etwa späterhin durch den Staats-Sekretär des Reichs-Postamtes dazu bestimmt werden, und dem Postamt in New York sowie denjenigen Postämtern in den Vereinigten Staaten, die etwa späterhin durch den General-Postmeister der Vereinigten Staaten dazu bestimmt werden. Gemäss den Bestimmungen dieses Abkommens sollen in den Kartenschlüssen solche Pakete zugelassen werden, welche durch diese Auswechselungs-Postanstalten von irgend einem Ort in einem der beiden Länder nach irgend einem Ort in dem anderen Lande abgesandt werden.

ARTICLE II.

Falls ein in der Liste eingetragenes Packet nicht eingegangen ist, so muss noch ein zweiter Beamter diese Thatsache feststellen, worauf die Eintragung gestrichen und die absendende Postanstalt sofort davon benachrichtigt werden muss.

ARTICLE 1.—Exchange.

Exchange of money orders.

There shall be a regular exchange of Money Orders between the United States of America and Mexico.

ARTICLE 2.—Conversion.

To be expressed in United States money, etc.

1. The amounts of Orders issued either in Mexico or in the United States shall be expressed in money of the United States; and, in view of the frequent fluctuation of exchange between the two countries, it is agreed that the amount of each Money Order shall be converted into the proper equivalent by the Mexican postal administration; that is to say: the amounts received by the Mexican postal administration for Money Orders payable in the United States shall be converted into the money of the United States at the rate of exchange current at the time of issue, in the City of Mexico, and the amounts of Money Orders issued in the United States on Mexico shall be converted in like manner by the Mexican postal administration into Mexican money at the rate of exchange current at the City of Mexico on the day on which the Exchange Office designated by Mexico receives the list referred to in Article 9 of this Convention.

2. The postal administration of Mexico may, however, modify, when it deems it advisable, the mode of procedure indicated in the preceding paragraph for the conversion of the Orders issued in Mexico on the United States, in such wise that the amount of such Orders shall be expressed in Mexican money at the time of their issue in Mexico, and the conversion into the money of the United States shall be made by the Exchange Office designated by Mexico, at the rate of exchange current there on the day on which the list of such Orders is dispatched to the Exchange Office of the United States. In order to adopt this modification it will be necessary for the postal administration of Mexico to notify the Post Office Department of the United States six months in advance. († See note.)

ARTICLE 3.—Maximum amount.

Maximum amount.

1. The maximum amount for which a Money Order may be drawn in either country upon the other shall be one hundred dollars, or the equivalent in Mexican money.

Fractions.

2. No Money Order shall contain a fractional part of a cent or of a centavo.

ARTICLE 4.—Currency.

Payment in legal money, etc.

1. The amounts of Money Orders shall be deposited by the remitters and paid to the payees in gold coin or in any other legal money of the same current value.

2. However, in case there should be in circulation in either country currency of legal tender, but of less value than gold, the administration of that country shall have the right to receive and employ the same in its relations with the public, taking into account the difference of value.

ARTICLE 5.—Fees.

Fees.

The Post Office Department of Mexico and the Post Office Department of the United States shall each have power to fix, from time to time, the fees to be charged on all Money Orders they may respectively issue. This commission shall belong to the issuing postal administration.

ARTICLE 6.—Names.

1. No Money Order shall be issued unless the applicant furnish in full the surname, and at least the initial of one first name, both of the remitter and the payee, or the name of the firm or company who are the remitters or payees, together with the address of the remitter and that of the payee.

Names.

2. If, however, any applicant for a Money Order shall tender the name of either the remitter or payee at greater length, such particulars shall be received and entered in the list.

ARTICLE 7.—Exchange offices.

The service of the Postal Money Order System between the two countries shall be performed exclusively by the agency of the offices of exchange. On the part of Mexico the office of exchange shall be Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, and on the part of the United States, Laredo, Texas.

Exchange offices.

ARTICLE 8.—Exchange lists.

1. The particulars of all Money Orders drawn in the United States upon Mexico shall be entered at the Exchange Office of Laredo in a list similar to the form marked "A" (in the appendix), in which list shall be shown the amount of each Order in United States money. Such list, after having received the impression of the Laredo date stamp, shall be forwarded, in duplicate, to the Exchange Office at Nuevo Laredo, where both copies shall be impressed with the date stamp of that office, where the rate of conversion and the amount to be paid on each Order in the money of Mexico shall be noted on both copies of the list, and where the requisite arrangements for effecting payment of the Orders shall be carried out.

Lists.

2. In like manner the particulars of Money Orders drawn in Mexico upon the United States shall be entered at the Exchange Office at Nuevo Laredo in a list similar to the form marked "B," in which shall be shown the rate of conversion and the amount of each Order in the money of both countries. Such list, after having received the impression of the date stamp of that office, shall be forwarded in duplicate to the Exchange Office at Laredo, where it shall receive the impression of the date stamp in use at that office, and where inland (re-issued) Orders and Advices corresponding to the entries in the list shall be issued, to effect payment in accordance with the regulations of the Post Office Department of the United States.

3. The lists as well as the entries in the lists shall be numbered consecutively 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, etc., in the order of dispatch, commencing on July 1st of each calendar year, and the receipt of each list shall be acknowledged on either side by means of the first subsequent list forwarded in the opposite direction.

Lists to be numbered, etc.

4. Such lists shall be transmitted by each mail dispatched from Nuevo Laredo to Laredo, and vice-versa, and shall be written in copying ink.

5. One copy of each exchange list shall be returned by the receiving Exchange Office to the dispatching Exchange Office; but, before returning such copy, the receiving Exchange Office shall enter therein the names of the respective offices of payment of the Orders enumerated in the list.

6. Should it happen that on the day when the list is to be dispatched there are no Orders to be communicated for payment, the list must nevertheless be sent; but, in that event, the Exchange Office will write across the list the words: "No Money Orders."

ARTICLE 9.—Internal orders issued.

1. As soon as the list of the dispatching office shall have reached the receiving office of exchange, the latter shall forward, free of postage, the internal (re-issued) Money Orders drawn in favor of the payees for the amounts specified in the list, to the respective payees, or to the offices of destination, in conformity with the regulations existing in each country for the payment of Money Orders.

2. When the lists shall show irregularities which the receiving office shall not be able to rectify, that office shall demand an explanation with as little delay as possible. Pending the receipt of the explanation the issue of internal (re-issued) Money Orders of payment relating to the entries in the list found to be erroneous should be suspended.

ARTICLE 10.—Issue and payment.

1. The Money Orders issued by each country on the other shall be subject, as regards issue and payment, to the regulations which govern the payment of Domestic Money Orders in the country of issue or of payment, respectively.

2. It is agreed that all Money Orders paid in either country shall be retained by the country in which they are paid.

ARTICLE 11.—Duplicates, etc.

Errors, etc.

Duplicates, etc.

2. Duplicate Orders shall only be issued by the postal administration of the country of payment, and in conformity with the regulations established or to be established in that country.

ARTICLE 12.—Repayments.

Repayments.

Repayment, whether of an original or by means of a duplicate Order, shall not be made to the remitter until it has been ascertained, through the postal administration of the country on which the original order was drawn, that the Order has not been paid and will not be paid in the country of payment.

ARTICLE 13.—Void orders.

Void orders.

1. Orders which shall not have been paid within twelve calendar months from the month of issue shall become void, and the sums received shall accrue to and be at the disposal of the country of origin.

which must always be stated in United States money, shall, after proper verification, if due by the postal administration of Mexico, be paid at Washington, in the money of the United States, by a sight bill of exchange on New York, N. Y., sent by that administration at the same time that it transmits the account; and, if due by the Post Office Department of the United States, it shall be paid at the same time that the latter returns the accepted copy of the account, by means of a sight bill of exchange on the City of Mexico, D. F., drawn in United States money.

3. For this quarterly account forms shall be used in conformity with the patterns "C," "D," "E" and "F" in the appendix.

4. If, pending the settlement of an account, one of the two postal administrations shall ascertain that it owes the other a balance exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000), the indebted administration shall promptly remit to the other the approximate amount of such balance.

ARTICLE 15.—Detailed regulations.

The Postmaster General, in either country, shall be authorized to adopt any additional rules, not repugnant to the foregoing, for the greater security against fraud or for the better working of the system generally. To All to Whom these Presents shall Come, Greeting:

Preamble.

Know Ye, that whereas a Convention between the United States of America, and the Republic of Chile to revive the Convention of August 7, 1892, between the two countries, to adjust amicably the claims of citizens of either country against the Government of the other, was concluded at Washington, on the twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, the original of which Convention, being in the English and Spanish languages, is, as amended by the Senate of the United States, word for word as follows:

Former treaty revived, vol. 27, p. 965.

The Convention between the United States of America and the Republic of Chile, signed August 7, 1892, having expired, and the Commission thereunder established to adjust amicably the claims made by the citizens of either country against the Government of the other having failed, through limitation, to conclude its task, leaving certain claims duly presented to the said commission adjudicated, the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Chile, desiring to remove every cause of difference in the friendly relations that happily exist between the two Nations, have agreed to revive the said convention of August 7, 1892, and for that purpose have named as their Plenipotentiaries, to wit:

El Presidente de los Estados Unidos de América, al Honorable John Sherman, Secretario de Estado de los Estados Unidos, i

The President of the Republic of Chile, Señor Don Domingo Gana, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Chile in the United States of America:

Who have agreed upon the articles following:

ARTICLE I.

The High Contracting Parties agree to revive the Convention of August 7, 1892, between the United States of America and the Republic of Chile, and that the commission thereunder created shall be allowed for the transaction of its business a period of four months, to be reckoned from the day of its first meeting for business, and conforming, in other respects, with the provisions of the second paragraph of Article VIII of the said Convention. Nevertheless, if the period of four months before stipulated shall prove insufficient for the settlement of the claims, the Commissioners are authorized to extend, at their discretion, such period to one or two months more.

It is expressly stipulated that this article shall in no wise extend or change the period designated by the first paragraph of Article VIII of the said Convention for the presentation of the claims; so that the new Commission shall be limited to considering the claims duly presented to the former Commission in conformity with the terms of the Convention and with the Rules that governed its labors, excepting claim No. 7, of the North and South American Construction Company, which was subsequently withdrawn, a direct and final settlement thereof having been arrived at by the interested parties.

No obstante, si el plazo de cuatro meses, ántes estipulado, fuese insuficiente para la decision de las reclamaciones, los Comisionados están autorizados para prorrogar, á su discreción, por uno ó dos meses más, el indicado plazo.

Queda claramente estipulado que el presente artículo no altera ó estiende en manera alguna el plazo que señaló el inciso primero del Artículo VIII de dicha Convencion para la presentacion de los reclamos; de manera que la nueva Comision habrá de limitarse á resolver sólo las reclamaciones que fueron debidamente presentadas ante la Comision anterior en conformidad con los términos de la Convencion i del Reglamento que gobernaron sus trabajos, exceptuando el reclamo No. 7 de la North and South American Construction Company que ha sido más tarde retirado por haberse arribado á un arreglo directo i final entre las partes interesadas.

En la precedente convención de Bultos Postales ha juzgado indispensable el Gobierno de los Estados Unidos de Venezuela introducir tres ligeras modificaciones y ampliaciones del tenor siguiente:

Additions to convention by Venezuela.

El parágrafo del número I del artículo II se ampliará así:
“Publicaciones que violen las leyes de propiedad literaria del país de destino y cualesquiera otras cuya introducción esté prohibida ó se prohibiere; venenos y materias explosivas ó inflamables; sustancias grasosas, líquidas ó de fácil licuefacción; dulces y pastas, animales vivos ó muertos, exceptuando insectos y reptiles perfectamente disecados; frutas y vegetales que puedan descomponerse fácilmente; sustancias que exhale mal olor; billetes de lotería, noticias ó circulares de lotería; objetos obscenos ó inmorales; artículos que puedan destruir ó de alguna manera dañar las balijas, ó causar perjuicio á las personas que los manejan. Queda igualmente prohibida la admisión de los bultos postales que contengan, en parte ó en su totalidad, objetos de prohibida introducción en el país del destino ó que se prohibieren, ú objetos cuya introducción no pueda hacerse sin previo permiso del Gobierno. La oficina central de cada país comunicará á la del otro la nómina de los objetos que estén comprendidos en estas prohibiciones."

El número 2 del artículo II se cambiará así:

"Todos los artículos admisibles de mercancías que se depositen en el correo de un país con destino al otro, ó que se reciban en un país procedentes del otro, no estarán sujetos á otra detención ó inspección sino solamente á la que fuere necesaria para cobrar los derechos aduaneros y se despacharán á su destino por la vía más rápida, quedando sujetos, en su trasmisión y entrega á los interesados, á las leyes y reglamentos de cada país respectivamente."

El número 2 del artículo VI quedará así:

"Estos bultos quedarán sujetos en el país de su destino á todos los reglamentos y derechos aduaneros que estuvieren vigentes en el mismo país, para proteger las rentas de sus aduanas; y los derechos aduaneros que debidamente corresponda cobrar sobre los mismos bultos serán cobrados al entregarse éstos, de acuerdo con los reglamentos aduaneros del país de destino."

The Central Office of each country will communicate to that of the other a list of the articles comprised in these prohibitions."

Number 2 of Article II is changed, as follows:

“All admissible articles of merchandise mailed in one country for the other, or received in one country from the other, shall be free from any detention or inspection whatever, except such as is required for collection of customs duties; and shall be forwarded by the most speedy means to their destination, being subject in their transmission and delivery to the addressees to the laws and regulations of each country, respectively.”

L'Etat auquel une personne a été livrée ne pourra pas la livrer à un Etat tiers, à moins que les conditions prescrites au premier alinéa du présent article n'aient été remplies.

ARTICLE X.

The expenses incurred in the arrest, detention, examination and surrender of the fugitive shall be borne by the State making the demand. The State making the demand shall not, however, be charged for the services of such officials of the Government upon which the demand is made, as re-suivie ou a été condamnée dans l'Etat de refuge pour une autre infraction, l'extradition pourra être renvoyée jusqu'à la cloture de la procédure criminelle ou à l'expiration de la peine.

ARTICLE XI.

Si l'extradition de la personne réclamée par un des deux Etats contractants est demandée également par un ou plusieurs autres Etats pour des infractions que la personne en question aurait commises sur leur territoire, la préférence devra être donnée à l'Etat dont la réquisition est motivée par l'infraction la plus grave, à moins que l'Etat requis ne soit tenu par un Traité de donner la préférence à un autre.

Si les infractions sont de gravité égale, il sera fait droit à la demande présentée la première, à moins que l'Etat requis ne soit tenu par un Traité de donner la préférence à un autre Etat.

ARTICLE XII.

Tous les objets saisis, trouvés en la possession de la personne réclamée lors de son arrestation, doivent être remis au Gouvernement requérant, lors de l'extradition, en même temps que cette personne, et cette remise ne s'étendra pas seulement aux objets acquis au moyen de l'infraction pour laquelle la personne est poursuivie, mais encore à tous autres objets pouvant servir à établir la preuve de l'infraction.

The lands allotted to the Indians are for greater convenience particularly described in the accompanying schedule entitled "Schedule of lands within the Southern Ute Indian Reservation allotted to the Indians and withheld from settlement and entry by proclamation of the President dated April 13, 1899," and which schedule is made a part thereof.

An error having been made in 1873 in the survey and location of the eastern boundary of the reservation hereby opened to settlement and entry whereby certain lands constituting a part of the reservation were erroneously identified as being outside of the reservation, by reason of which several persons in good faith settled upon said lands under the belief that the same were unappropriated public lands open to settlement, and have since improved and cultivated, and are now residing upon the same with a view to the entry thereof under the public land laws, notice is hereby given that in so far as said persons possess the qualifications required by law, and maintain their said settlement and residence up to the time of the opening herein provided for, they will be considered and treated as having initiated and established a lawful settlement at the very instant at which the lands become open, and as having the superior right and claim to enter said lands, which right must be exercised within three months from the time of said opening.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this 13th day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and ninety-nine, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-third.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

A PROCLAMATION:

Preamble.

A national custom dear to the hearts of the people calls for the setting apart of one day in each year as an occasion of special thanksgiving to Almighty God for the blessings of the preceding year. This honored observance acquires with time a tenderer significance. It enriches domestic life. It summons under the family roof the absent children to glad reunion with those they love.

Seldom has this Nation had greater cause for profound thanksgiving. No great pestilence has invaded our shores. Liberal employment waits upon labor. Abundant crops have rewarded the efforts of the husbandmen. Increased comforts have come to the home. The national finances have been strengthened, and public credit has been sustained and made firmer. In all branches of industry and trade there has been an unequalled degree of prosperity, while there has been a steady gain in the moral and educational growth of our national character. Churches and schools have flourished. American patriotism has been exalted. Those engaged in maintaining the honor of the flag with such signal success have been in a large degree spared from disaster and disease. An honorable peace has been ratified with a foreign nation with which we were at war, and we are now on friendly relations with every power of earth.

The trust which we have assumed for the benefit of the people of Cuba has been faithfully advanced. There is marked progress toward the restoration of healthy industrial conditions, and under wise sanitary regulations the island has enjoyed unusual exemption from the scourge of fever. The hurricane which swept over our new possession of Porto Rico, destroying the homes and property of the inhabitants, called forth the instant sympathy of the people of the United States, who were swift to respond with generous aid to the sufferers. While the insurrection still continues in the island of Luzon, business is resuming its activity, and confidence in the good purposes of the United States is being rapidly established throughout the archipelago.

For these reasons and countless others, I, William McKinley, President of the United States, do hereby name Thursday, the thirtieth day of November next, as a day of general thanksgiving and prayer, to be observed as such by all our people on this continent and in our newly acquired islands, as well as those who may be at sea or sojourning in foreign lands; and I advise that on this day religious exercises shall be conducted in the churches or meeting-places of all denominations, in order that in the social features of the day its real significance may not be lost sight of, but fervent prayers may be offered to the Most High for a continuance of the Divine Guidance without which man's efforts are vain, and for Divine consolation to those whose kindred and friends have sacrificed their lives for country.

I recommend also that on this day so far as may be found practicable labor shall cease from its accustomed toil and charity abound toward the sick, the needy and the poor.

In witness whereof I have set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this 25th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-fourth.

A PROCLAMATION:

To the People of the United States:—

Garret Augustus Hobart, Vice-President of the United States, died at his home in Paterson, New Jersey, at 8-30 o'clock this morning. In him the Nation has lost one of its most illustrious citizens and one of its most faithful servants. His participation in the business life, and the law-making body of his native State was marked by unswerving fidelity and by a high order of talents and attainments; and his too brief career as Vice President of the United States and President of the Senate exhibited the loftiest qualities of upright and sagacious statesmanship. In the world of affairs he had few equals among his contemporaries. His private character was gentle and noble. He will long be mourned by his friends as a man of singular purity and attractiveness whose sweetness of disposition won all hearts, while his elevated purposes, his unbending integrity and whole-hearted devotion to the public good deserved and acquired universal respect and esteem.

Executive Offices to be closed, etc.

In sorrowing testimony of the loss which has fallen upon the country, I direct that on the day of the funeral the Executive Offices of the United States shall be closed and all posts and stations of the Army and Navy shall display the national flag at half-mast, and that the representatives of the United States in foreign countries shall pay appropriate tribute to the illustrious dead for a period of thirty days.

In witness whereof I have set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this twenty-first day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred

To the People of the United States:

Death of John Sherman.

In the fullness of years and honors, John Sherman, lately Secretary of State, has passed away.

Few among our citizens have risen to greater or more deserved eminence in the national councils than he. The story of his public life and services is as it were the history of the country for half a century. In the Congress of the United States he ranked among the foremost in the House, and later in the Senate. He was twice a member of the Executive Cabinet, first as Secretary of the Treasury, and afterwards as Secretary of State. Whether in debate during the dark hours of our civil war, or as the director of the country's finances during the period of rehabilitation, or as a trusted councillor in framing the nation's laws for over forty years, or as the exponent of its foreign policy, his course was ever marked by devotion to the best interests of his beloved land, and by able and conscientious effort to uphold its dignity and honor. His countrymen will long revere his memory and see in him a type of the patriotism, the uprightness and the zeal that go to moulding and strengthening a nation.

In fitting expression of the sense of bereavement that afflicts the Republic, I direct that on the day of the funeral the Executive Offices of the United States display the national flag at half mast and that the representatives of the United States in foreign countries shall pay in like manner appropriate tribute to the illustrious dead for a period of ten days.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, A PROCLAMATION.

October 29, 1900.

It has pleased Almighty God to bring our nation in safety and honor through another year. The works of religion and charity have everywhere been manifest. Our country through all its extent has been blessed with abundant harvests. Labor and the great industries of the people have prospered beyond all precedent. Our commerce has spread over the world. Our power and influence in the cause of freedom and enlightenment have extended over distant seas and lands. The lives of our official representatives and many of our people in China have been marvelously preserved. We have been generally exempt from pestilence and other great calamities; and even the tragic visitation which overwhelmed the City of Galveston made evident the sentiments of sympathy and Christian charity by virtue of which we are one united people.

Preamble.

Now, therefore, I, William McKinley, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the 29th of November next, to be observed by all the people of the United States, at home or abroad, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Him who holds the nations in the hollow of His hand. I recommend that they gather in their several places of worship and devoutly give Him thanks for the prosperity wherewith He has endowed us, for seed-time and harvest, for the valor, devotion and humanity of our armies and navies, and for all His benefits to us as individuals and as a nation; and that they humbly pray for the continuance of His Divine favor, for concord and amity with other nations, and for righteousness and peace in all our ways.

November 29, 1900,
national thanksgiving.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Washington, March 14th, 1901.

To the People of the United States:

Death of Benjamin Harrison.

Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States from 1889 to 1893, died yesterday at 4:45 P. M., at his home in Indianapolis. In his death the country has been deprived of one of its greatest citizens. A brilliant soldier in his young manhood, he gained fame and rapid advancement by his energy and valor. As a lawyer he rose to be a leader of the bar. In the Senate he at once took and retained high rank as an orator and legislator; and in the high office of President he displayed extraordinary gifts as administrator and statesman. In public and in private life he set a shining example for his countrymen.

In testimony of the respect in which his memory is held by the Government and people of the United States, I do hereby direct that the flags on the Executive Mansion and the several Departmental buildings be displayed at half staff for a period of thirty days; and that suitable military and naval honors, under the orders of the Secretaries of War and of the Navy, be rendered on the day of the funeral.
